

TO MY DARLING RICHARD ON OUR TENTH WEDDING ANIVERSARY – FROM ANNA

My husband is wonderful.

We met in my club.

His friend was very helpful
and brought him for some grub.

The lovers' lane where we met first time
on an autumn evening with the sun going down
had one hotel and fields all around,
birds song in the air - you could hear every sound.

He took me for a romantic meal
I had fish and he had veal.
We got to know each other's intends
and straight away became true friends.

When he took me to a Stratford show,
Love set my whole being aglow,
we walked together hands in hold
he understood how I felt without being told.

We went away on a holiday,
surprised ourselves – lived for the day.
How wonderful it was to be together,
we wanted it to go on for ever.

For the last ten years our love has grown stronger
and I hope it will last for much, much longer.
Thank you my husband for putting up with my ways,
says she who always obeys.
